

“The Greek language after Antiquity: recent research and future directions in historical linguistics”

A workshop, 8-9 May 2020

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

Friday 8 May

15:00–15:30 Registration

15:30 Welcome by John Bennet, Director of the School

15:40 Introduction: David Holton

16:00–18:00 Session 1

Christina Bassea-Bezantakou:

The Historical Dictionary of Modern Greek and its contribution to the investigation of the history of Greek

John Kazazis:

On the “Kriaras Dictionary” of Medieval Greek: Issues of substance

Elisabeth Schiffer:

A Supplement to the Lexikon zur byzantinischen Gräzität: Expectations, challenges, possibilities

18:00–18:30 Break

18:30–20.00 Session 2

Martin Hinterberger:

Registers of Byzantine Greek

Eleni Karantzola:

Investigating spoken registers in prose texts of Early Modern Greek (16th-17th c.)

20:00 Reception

Saturday 9 May

9:30–11:00 Session 3

Io Manolessou:

Recent advances in the historical dialectology of Modern Greek

Thodoris Markopoulos:

Language contact in late Medieval Greek: Linguistic, extra-linguistic and meta-linguistic evidence

11:00–11:30 Coffee break

11:30–13:00 Session 4

Nikos Pantelidis:

Phonological change in Medieval and Early Modern Greek

Tina Lendari:

Morphological change in Medieval and Early Modern Greek

13:00–14:30 Break

14:30–15:30 Session 5

Maria Pantelia:

The digital corpus of Greek: Challenges and desiderata

15:45–17:15 Concluding discussion convened by Amalia Moser

Organising Committee: David Holton, Roderick Beaton (Chairman of the BSA Committee for Society, Arts and Letters), John Bennet (Director of the BSA)

Academic Committee: Despina Chila-Markopoulou (Athens), David Holton (Cambridge), Angela Ralli (Patras)