

VIRTUAL COURSE FOR SCHOOL TEACHERS 'MYTH AND RELIGION'

The British School at Athens is delighted to invite UK school teachers to attend a free virtual CPD course, focussing on the OCR GCSE Classical Civilisation module 'Myth and Religion'. The course is intended both for those who already teach the new GCSE (or similar specifications), and also for those who have never taught the subject before.

Participants will follow a series of four virtual lectures, introducing the main themes of the module and providing new case studies beyond the GCSE syllabus. By the end of the course, participants will have a sound working knowledge of myth and religion in Classical Athens, helping them to teach this material to students with confidence.

'Festivals: The City Dionysia and the Great Panathenaia'

- Prof. Robin Osborne (Professor of Ancient History, Cambridge / Vice-Chair, BSA)
Tuesday 22nd March, 5:00pm

'Religion and the City: Temples'

- Dr Tulsi Parikh (A.G. Leventis Fellow in Hellenic Studies, BSA)
Thursday 24th March, 5:00pm

'Death and burial' - Dr Michael Loy (Assistant Director, BSA)

Tuesday 29th March, 5:00pm

'Visualising myth and religion in art: digital teaching tools and public engagement'

- Ms Zofia Guertin (St Andrews University / Artist Award Holder 2020-2021, BSA)
Thursday 31st March, 5:00pm

Although these lectures are designed as a series and participants will gain most if they can attend all sessions, attendance throughout the whole course is not mandatory. All times are UK (BST).

There is no participation fee. Teachers can register for this course via the British School at Athens website (<https://www.bsa.ac.uk/courses/school-teachers-course>)
